

TOUR 8 Framingham! – Next Stop on the Bruce Freeman Rail Trail.

A walking tour led by Ed Kross, Framingham Rep. and Board member of the Bruce Freeman Rail Trail

Tour layout. Start and end. The walking tour will start at the McAuliffe Library, 746 Water St in Framingham. Walking south along the Bruce Freeman Rail Trail Right-of-Way, we will cross the Weston Aqueduct trail, and about a quarter mile along we will reach Frost St. It is a short walk to see where the Hultman Aqueduct, the Weston Aqueduct and the BFRT converge at Edgell Rd. After returning to the McAuliffe Library, we have the option to walk north along the BFRT RoW towards Sudbury, passing by Garden in the Woods after traversing Landham Brook three times. Soft shoes or sneakers and long pants are recommended.

Tour leader bio.

Ed Kross has a long and storied cycling history. He is currently a board member of the Friends of the Bruce Freeman Rail Trail, and president of the Northeast Bicycle Club (based west and north of Boston). As a Town Meeting Member of Framingham for 20 years, he served on a variety of committees, as well as the Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee. Ed is anxious to see the last phase of the Bruce Freeman Rail Trail completed in Framingham, as it will serve as a central connection to the many existing and potential trails in MetroWest and beyond, including the Mass Central Rail Trail.
